

Please do not change the Do Not Call Law. I do not want to go back to constant annoying phone calls. I've not had any useful information or other from time wasted in the past answering them.